SONNET.

Then, the warm earth is sated with our
And weeping trees have forgotten where
we lie,
Will other lovers pass us like a gust
Of sudden wind blown down a careless sky?
Our whispers shake the stillness of the earth,
Our weary bones call sadly from below
Until they pause from all their joy and sorrow,
Will they speak lightly of our changing days
That were too beautiful to last for long and mark our passion with a dreary
song.
Or will their tears fall on the grassy
ways
And they near weep their hearts out thinking how
The sword of death must fall upon each brow.

WANT WOMEN TO ENTER
BIG LITERARY CONTEST

(By Mrs. George H. Waiblinger.)
District Chairman of Press.
The literature contest which is being conducted by the literary department of the Texas Federation of Women's clubs will close October fifteenth, so women of the Seventh District are urged to put forth strenuous literary efforts and have the district well represented in the contest. Mrs. S. H. Madden of Amarillo, is the chairman of the literature committee for the Seventh district and she is very desirous of there being a large number of women who will take part in the contest. The rules for it have been recently issued by the literary committee of the state Federation and are as follows: The composition must be original; it may be a poem, a short story, a feature article or a one-act play. Manuscript must be typewritten. Competitions will be signed with a fictitious name and accompanied with a sealed envelope which will contain the fictitious name and also the true name and address of the author.

A committee of three, two to be appointed at large from the federation and one to be chosen from the faculty of Rice Institute, will make the final decision upon the merits of the composition submitted.

Compositions must have been received by the respective district chairmen of literature on or before October fifteenth and they must be in the hands of the state chairman on or before October twenty-fifth.

Prize winners will be announced at the state convention, to be held in November.

The literature committee stands for better English. Therefore, dictation and style will be considered, the rules provide.

The short story and feature article may not exceed 2000 words. The poem may not be less than thirty nor more than seventy-five lines in length. Verse verse is not acceptable.

The one-act play will base its plot on some incident of United States of Texas history. It shall not require over forty minutes for presentation.

For the best composition in each of the first three classifications, a medal will be awarded; for the one-act play, a cash prize of five dollars will be given.

Speakers Are Available.
Among the more recently created committees in the seventh district is that of the Speakers' Bureau, of which Mrs. E. B. Masterson, Jr., of Amarillo is chairman. This committee can supply a speaker to any club upon being notified, and this is a privilege that should by all means be used; for a good speaker on a special subject is a source of much inspiration and benefit to any club.

Most of the speakers available come from the excellent faculty of the North West Texas State Normal and are without exception expert authorities on their various lines of study. This is an opportunity which should not be overlooked.

Lectures Being Given.

In connection with the extension courses which are being taken from the State Normal at Canyon by a number of clubs in the district, Mr. H. W. Morelock, head of the Extension Department, has been making his first lecture tour the past week. He spoke on Wednesday evening at Abernathy on "Children's Literature" and at Tahoka on Thursday on the same subject. At Hale Center he spoke on the subject of "American Literature" on Friday; and on Saturday evening two Plainview clubs, the Mystic and the Travel Study, met in joint session to hear Mr. Morelock lecture on "The Modern Drama."

Clubwomen to Speak.

Of interest to the club women in the district is the announcement that two of the widely known club women of Texas will be speakers at the Panhandle Plains Chamber of Commerce convention which meets in Amarillo on the 18th and 19th. They are Mrs. Maggie W. Barry of College Station, who holds the office of National Chairman of Home Economics and Mrs. Phoebe K. Warner, who needs no introduction to this, her own district. Mrs. Barry will lecture at several places on her return trip to College Station including Plainview, where she will speak to the Hale County Federation of clubs on September 27.

Penwomen to Meet.
The autumn meeting of the Panhandle Penwomen will be held early in October in Amarillo. The program committee of which Miss Laura V. Hammer is chairman, has arranged a delightfully interesting program for the meeting. The club will meet in the assembly room of the new Potter county Library and Rest Room building. This location is a very desirable one, being central, and the rooms being comfortably and attractively furnished. A large and enthusiastic meeting of penwomen from over the Panhandle is anticipated.

BIG FESTIVAL CHORUS TO BEGIN WORK MONDAY, SEPT. 25

The Panhandle Festival Chorus in Amarillo is being organized and will meet for its first rehearsal Monday night, Sept. 25, at 7:30 o'clock at the Methodist Church. This chorus when fully organized will probably number 150 voices. Every choir singer and musician of the city is expected to cooperate and help in this great work. The benefits of the work to the individual are not to be overlooked as it is an education in itself to learn these great choral works.

The "Rose Maiden" is delightfully melodious and so pretty that it immediately becomes a favorite with all choral organizations. The "Elijah" is a classic which appeals. The climaxes which this wonderful Biblical story reach are so vividly described by Mendelssohn's music that it would seem useless for any other composer to even attempt another musical setting. With Arthur Middleton in the title role, a great "Elijah" performance is expected. Trained musicianship is not necessary for entrance into these choruses. Persons with a musical voice and a good ear for following a melody can be of assistance and at the same time receive great benefit from the work.

MRS. DAUBERT ATTENDS
REUNION AT CHICAGO

Mrs. H. S. Daubert will return to the city today after spending a month in Chicago attending a family reunion at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. August Lake, which was held on the occasion of Mrs. Daubert's sister, Mrs. Joseph Schaeffer's first visit to the United States, after marrying several years ago and leaving to make her home in Germany. The gathering not only enjoyed a pleasant time among themselves, but the reunion was also marked by a number of delightful social affairs given by former friends of Mrs. Schaeffer, who was popular in church, music and social circles before her departure.

WOMEN ARE INVITED TO JOIN LITERARY CLUB

The committee on literature of the Potter County Federation, of which Miss Susan Gullledge is chairman, will organize a new literary club next Saturday afternoon, Sept. 23, in the assembly room at the Potter County Library. All women of the city who are interested in this line of work and who would enjoy taking up with them the study of literature, are invited to be present on that afternoon to apply for membership.

It has never been our custom to feature price. But sometimes when people seem to forget everything but price it seems necessary to make price the main attraction. We are doing it in this case. But in reality the price is the smallest feature of these wonderful garments. The exclusive styles and quality should be considered aside from the price. Come here. See these garments. Note the quality. Try them on. See how easily and comfortably they fit. Then the price will seem even lower than it is. Our hats needs no advertising as every one knows the style and individuality implied in the words Gage Hat, also our customers know that to have what made in our workrooms means the highest class designing and workmanship. We also have a complete line of Little Miss Gage hats and we are making this very interesting for the little girls by the drawing contest which closes Tuesday, Sept. 19th. The judges will be three prominent ladies who will pass on the drawings, the last of next week and the lucky little girl will receive her Gage hat by Oct. 15th.
